

William Carmello

21 Ridgemont Street, Boston, MA 02134

william.carmello@bc.edu ; (518)795-0080

Education

Boston College, Boston, MA

Master of Science in Applied Economics, Expected December 2021

GPA: 4.0

Siena College, Loudonville, NY

Bachelor of Arts in Economics, Minor in Business, May 2020

GPA: 3.84, Magna Cum Laude

Work Experience

Student Intern, NYS Workers' Compensation Board, Schenectady, NY, May 2018-April 2020

- Conducted audits for medical reimbursement requests to ensure compliance from insurance companies within state and agency rules.
- Kept and organized records of medical reimbursement reports for thousands of claimants.

Economics Department Research Assistant, Siena College, Loudonville, NY, June 2019-December 2019

- Conducted qualitative research analysis with Economics department Chairman, Dr. Aaron Pacitti.
- Created an intensive literature review from more than 25 sources of published literature on job quality and constructed a national survey on job quality, which was implemented by the Siena College research institute.

Skills/Awards

- Experience programming in R, Python, SPSS, and Excel
- Inducted into Alpha Kappa Alpha, the Honor Society of Siena College (2020)
 - Membership in this society is the highest award granted to a student at graduation
- Inducted into Pi Sigma Alpha, National Political Science Honor Society (2019)
- 2x nominee for the Siena College Way of Saint Francis Award (2017, 2018)
 - Nominations are presented by a faculty member based on display of charitable campus contributions
- Proficient in Microsoft Office Suite, including Microsoft Access

Relevant Courses (graduate): Financial Economics, Applied Macroeconomic Theory, Mathematics for Economists, Applied Microeconomic Theory, Data Analysis

Extracurricular Activities

Class President, Siena College Class of 2020, January 2018- May 2018

- Scheduled weekly meetings to discuss and carry out projects for the class of 2020.

Member, Omicron Delta Epsilon, February 2019-present

- National Honor Society for Economics majors, attended scholarly and networking events.